Easily adaptable to different aesthetic tastes, but surely innovative in technology: a new extraordinary cooker hood is born. From now on cooking will become an enjoyable and carefree experience, because the iHood is able to play your favorite music simply by pairing it to your smartphone via Bluetooth. With one touch, you can even answer your phone calls, talking hands free without the need to pick up your phone. What we can guarantee is that, if you try it, you'll wonder how you lived without it!

Bluetooth Connectivity

Wireless speakers to connect various types of smartphones.

Integrated microfone

For making and answering calls also, answer hands free.

Second microphone

For the reduction of background noise.

Adjustable and delayed self-switching off:

This function allows you to programme delayed hood shutdown which, while you eat dinner, provides the right level of air purity in your kitchen.

Light indicator for grease filter maintenance:

The hood automatically informs you when the metal grease filter designed for trapping grease in the air requires cleaning.
